Subject: follow up meeting

Thanks again to you, Joel and Benita for taking time last week to meet with the folks from Hudbay and me to discuss the Rosemont mine project in southern Arizona. We found the discussion to be helpful and informative with regard to the permitting process, and greatly appreciated the time and consideration that you gave to us.

I would like to schedule a time with you to follow up on a few procedural questions that we still have regarding the process. Are you in town next week? If so, is there a time next Tuesday or Thursday, March 29 or 31, when I might come by your office to talk with you? My schedule on each of those dates is fairly flexible, so just let me know if there is particular time or times that might work best for you.

I have copied David Bernhardt of the Brownstein Hyatt law firm, with whom I have been working on this project, as David would like to join us for this follow up conversation.

I look forward to seeing you soon. Thanks.
